SUMMARY REPORT DIGEST
COMPLAINT REGISTER INVESTIGATION # 251717
CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT

R/Sgt. was reassigned the investigation of CR# 251717 on 05 Mar 99. This investigation was originally assigned to Sgt. Wolak #2120. Sgt. Wolak's initial interview of complainant [REDACTED] (attachment 2), resulted in the accused officers being identified as P.O. Brian Forberg #18761 and P.O. Darlene Wujick #18716. These officers are assigned to the 008th District Tactical Unit under the supervision of R/Sgt.

On 06 Mar 99, at approx. 1220 hrs., R/Sgt. interviewed complainant [REDACTED] attachment 3. [REDACTED] related that he was walking down the street at approx. 63rd and Albany when Officers Forberg and Wujick stopped him, made him put his hands on a wall, searched him and sent him on his way. [REDACTED] stated that he was alone when this occurred, and that he knew the officers by name from previous contact. R/Sgt. asked [REDACTED] about the location of the incident informing [REDACTED] that in his original complaint, (attachment 1), [REDACTED] told OPS that the incident occurred on the porch at [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] then stated that it was two M/2 officers who arrested him and complainant [REDACTED] on the porch for no reason. R/Sgt. informed [REDACTED] that his complaint about his arrest by two M/2 civilian dress officers was being investigated under CR#251726 (attachments 15, 16, & 17). R/Sgt. asked [REDACTED] if he remembered the date that he was stopped by Officers Forberg and Wujick and he stated that it was the day before he was arrested on his porch, (attachment 17.)

R/Sgt. interviewed complainant [REDACTED] on 06 Mar 99 at approx. 1400 hrs. (att.4) R/Sgt. asked [REDACTED] if he remembered an incident in which he and [REDACTED] were approached by the police on the porch at [REDACTED], previous to the incident in they were arrested. [REDACTED] indicated that he remembered the incident and described the officers as a big M/1 and a short M/4, in uniform, driving a marked police car.

On 07 Mar 99, R/Sgt. contacted Sgt. Wolak #2120, (attachment 2). Sgt. Wolak related that he read the allegations to complainant [REDACTED] just as they appear on attachment 1. Sgt. Wolak related that [REDACTED] stated the allegations were accurate and the Officers involved were Forberg and Wujick.

Officers Forberg and Wujick submitted to-from reports regarding the allegations (attachments 12 &13), indicating that both officers were regular day off. R/Sgt. obtained a photo-copy of the attendance and assignment record for 16 Feb 99, (attachment 14), which indicate that the accused Officers were regular day off on 16 Feb 99.

R/Sgt.'s investigation has revealed a pattern of inconsistencies from complainants [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] told OPS that the Officers were two M/2 officers in uniform, (attachment 1), but he didn't know their names. [REDACTED] told Sgt. Wolak #2120, that the officers were a M/2 named Forberg and a F/2 Named Wujick and that he knew them from previous contact. [REDACTED] also told Sgt. Wolak that the incident occurred on the porch at [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] told R/Sgt. that the incident occurred on the street at approx. 63rd and Albany, the officers were Wujick and Forberg, and that he was by himself. [REDACTED] told R/Sgt. the incident occurred on the porch at [REDACTED] and described the officers as a big M/1 and a short M/4. The only consistency in the allegations is the date of occurrence, 16 Feb 99, as documented by attachment 1 and attachments 16 & 17, which in itself exonerates Officers Forberg and Wujick as they were regular day off (attachment 14). Given the facts that the complainants changed the allegations, with regard to descriptions of the officers, location of occurrence, and what allegedly occurred every time they related the incident, along with the fact that the accused Officers were regular day off on the date of the alleged incident R/Sgt. finds that these allegations are UNFOUNDED.
